Please Note:

- You can access all course reading materials and resources from the start date on the College's eLearning platform, MyOTC.
- The first three workshops, including comfort and lunch breaks, will run from 9.30 a.m. to 3.30 p.m. The last workshop will end at 1 p.m.
- The third workshop will be in person, providing an opportunity to practice skills and meet with fellow practitioners. The workshop will be held at Marino Institute of Education, Griffith Avenue, Dublin. Details will be confirmed shortly.
- Attendance at these workshops is mandatory. An expert external presenter and experienced College staff will facilitate them through lectures/presentations, small group work, and individual activities.
- The College may need to change the date, time, location, or format (online/in-person) of workshops. Any changes will be communicated with as much notice as possible to ensure you have time to prepare.

*The Certificate in Supported Employment is undergoing validation to become a microcredential award (HET Level 7). Once QQI approves this validation, students who have completed this rollout of the Certificate in Supported Employment will be eligible to receive this microcredential through the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process in 2026.
